

I do not want any business or organization calling my home phone. My home phone is for our personal and family use, not for use for businesses or other organizations to solicit us to use their services or make contributions. I deeply resent their use of my personal phone in my home. I feel this is an invasion of my privacy and do not want the Indiana Telephone Privacy law weakened. As it is it does not give us enough protection.